

Kashim Hassan

Data Engineer

PROFILE

A dedicated and adaptable data engineer with 4 years of experience. Impacting positive organizational outcomes with a successful track record of analyzing vast sets of data to deliver strategic solutions, areas of opportunity and support tactical decisions. Experience with data ingestion to data warehousing that involves extracting, transforming and loading data. Proactive in collaborating with cross-functional teams to solve complex high stakes problems and contributing to team success.

TOP SKILLS & EXPERIENCE

- ETL and data management tool: Azure Synapse Notebook, Azure Data Factory, Data Studio, Github
- Programming skills: Python, SQL, Django, JavaScript
- Analytics tools: Power BI, Microsoft Excel

CAREER HISTORY

- HM Courts & Tribunals Service, Azure, Data Engineer Jul 2023 - Current
- The aim of this project was to create a data platform to replace legacy solutions
 - Created pipelines to ingest, transform and store data in Azure Data Lakes using Synapse Analytics notebooks
- Money & Pension, Microsoft Dynamics 365, Data Engineer Mar 2023 - Jun 2023
- The aim of this project was to migrate data from Zendesk into Microsoft Dynamics 365
 - Created a pipeline to ingest data and apply transformations which fitted the target schema
- itracr Data Engineer Mar 2023 - Jun 2023
- Maintain codebase for a timetacking application based on the Django framework
 - Implement new features and fix bugs
 - Created unit and feature tests to ensure correct functionality
- Procurato, Spend Analysis Tool, Data Engineer Jul 2021 - Feb 2023
- The aim of this project creates a web application using the Django framework to ingest procurement data just as spend and provide relevant analytics
 - Created data models to store data with accuracy and completeness as well as implementing features and fixing bugs
 - Utilized AWS EC2 and RDS